

Building Business Acumen

Making good judgements and quick decisions

Managers, at all levels, need a high level of business acumen to provide clarity and direction to their teams. Their role requires them to make decisions every day, about people, projects, processes, expenditures, customers – decisions that ultimately have an impact on their teams, business units and the larger organizational results.

If these decisions are made only through their departmental lens, without an understanding of the overall impact on organizational objectives and goals, it could prove damaging to the company. Luckily, we can help.

- LIVE dos and don'ts for participants
- Please do a test run to ensure your system (audio/visual) is working, in advance.
 - Please join the session from a place where you can focus, to avoid distractions and background noise.
 - Please ensure the place/room is well-lit, when your camera is on. Well-lit faces are more engaging.
 - Please mute your microphone, if you are not speaking, to cut down on background noise when others are speaking.
 - Please do not multi-task or run your email system in the background.
